Porch Dance

Miss Laura Hart's house party, who have been so extensively entertained the past week, were guests of honor at another beautiful party, when Mr. and Mrs. Judson Anderson entertained for them with a porch dance Saturday evening at their country place on the Hinkston pike. The wide gallery which extends around two sides of the house, was ideal for dancing and had been made bright and attractive with garden flowers used in greatest profusion. Lanterns suspended from the ceiling cast a soft glow over the dancers, adding much to the beauty of the scene. Assisting the hosts in receiving and entertaining their guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Highland, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brown, Jr., Mrs. W. P. Oldham, Mrs. S. D. Hall and Mrs. H. G. Hoffman. At midnight a delicious supper was served, buffet style, in the dining room. The lace-draped table had for its centre-piece a crystal basket holding a huge bunch of Radiance roses. Smaller baskets of confections in pink and white were placed at the corners. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson's guest list included: Miss Laura Hart, Miss Verna McCullough, of Texas; Miss Sue Corbin, of Portsmouth, Ohio; Miss Nell Morris, of North Carolina; Miss Madelyn Rule, of Georgia; Miss Mary V. Robertson, Miss Mary Lawless Gatewood, Miss Margaret Nesbitt, Miss Sue Chenault, of Richmond; Miss Virginia Throckmorton, of Lexington; Miss Ida Belle Brother, Miss Mildred Gatewood, Miss Lucy May Covington and Miss Anna Laura Atwood, of Mayfield; Misses Elizabeth Caywood and Lucille Caywood, North Middletown; Miss Angie Young Jackson, Owingsville, and Messrs. G. Kern and French Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Highland Entertain

One of the most elaborate social affairs ever given in this city was the dance on Friday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Highland entertained a large number of guests in honor of Miss Laura Hart and her house party. Knox Hall, where the dance was given, was beautifully decorated with garden flowers, and asparagus fern, garlands of flowers being twined about the pillars and the windows banked with flowers and ferns. At the head of the stairs stood the receiving line with Mr. and Mrs. Highland at its head, Mrs. Highland wearing a stunning black lace gown with touches of American Beauty. Next in line was Miss Hart, unusually handsome in black; Miss

Morris, wearing a very becoming turquoise blue taffeta, with silver lace; Miss Corbin, dainty in rose chiffon; Miss Throckmorton in a lovely gown of shell pink taffeta, with trimmings of ostrich; Miss Chenault in an attractive yellow taffeta model with gold lace, and Mrs. A. S. Hart, handsome black satin, with corsage of yellow roses. Shortly after nine o'clock the dancing began, the music furnished by an orchestra of three pieces. At midnight supper, consisting of salad, sandwiches, beaten biscuit and orange ice was served. Mr. and Mrs. Highland's hospitality included the guests of honor and Miss Mary V. Robertson, Miss Jennol Gatewood, Miss Ida Belle Brother, Miss Margaret Nesbitt, Miss Elizabeth McCoun, Miss Mary Crail, Miss Lillian Crail, Miss Margaret Ramsey, Miss Louise Barnes, Miss Emily Hazelrigg, Miss Elizabeth Prewitt, Miss Sarah F. Grammar School Commencement Friday

The commencement exercises of the Eighth Grade were held in the auditorium of the city schools on Friday night in the presence of a large and appreciative audience. The program, which was an excellent one, was well rendered each pupil having part in it showing careful training. The music, which was an especially enjoyable part of the program, was due to the efforts of Mrs. Loring Z. Turley, who had charge of the choruses, and to the accompanists, Mrs. E. H. Reid, Billy Reid and Miss Evelyn Prewitt. At the close of the exercises the diplomas were presented by Superintendent H. A. Babb. The first honors of the class were awarded to Charles Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Richardson. Those receiving honorable mention were: Elizabeth Strossman, Henrietta Howell, Martha Moss, Gladys Taber, Virginia Ayres, Elise Derrickson, Nola Highland, Roberta Dale, Georgia Kerns, Frances Turner, Frances Scobee, Billy Reid, Catherine Redmond, Mary Florence Dragoo and Tilla Cox.

RELIGIOUS

The revival at Grassy Lick is beginning well. Rev. W. K. McClure, of Flemingsburg, is assisting the pastor, Rev. J. S. Ragan. The preaching is of the highest type and the attendance is good.

Sunday services of the Methodist-Presbyterian revival as follows: Morning service at Presbyterian church at 11 o'clock. Great men's meeting at the Methodist church at 3 P. M. Night service at Methodist church at 7:30. Hear Rev. Dr. Thacker and the Harbisons.

PROTRACTED MEETING

Unusual interest is being shown in the revival services, in progress at the Methodist and Presbyterian churches this week. Many have signified their desire to join the church. Every congregation in the city will, no doubt, receive additions as a result of the services. Dr. Thacker is said to be one of the most satisfactory evangelists that ever visited Mt. Sterling, and the Harbison Singers are also doing a great work.
